UPSTATE GARDENERS' JOURNAL - 390 HILLSIDE AVENUE - ROCHESTER, NEW YORK 14610

New Decade, New Look?!?

Isn't it funny how over the years your sentiments and ideas about your garden and what you love (or hate about it) change? In our 40+ years of gardening, we have transitioned through many phases. And while plant and design trends swing, there are practiced, yet simple design rules that hold up. We find that no matter the fad, we use those rules over and over again. Whether you're going native, embracing minimalism, or doing a full-blown Christopher Lloyd landscape, consider these simple concepts:

1. Conditions Count! A plant in the wrong site makes you and your plant unhappy—think Sedums in a bog—that's a no-go.
2. Foliage is king! It matters more than any flower. Use contrasting foliage textures and shapes to create definition between plants.
3. Lastly, plant for you. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder, as they say; if you look at your garden and smile then all is right with the world.

"Can this be all there is to it?" you ask. Maybe not quite, but it is a perfectly acceptable leaping-off point! Just applying these few thoughts early in the game can genuinely help you reap significant benefits, and you won't need an education in horticulture to get it, just the right garden center.

Stone Wall Follies Update

This is part where we espouse and cheer about The Follies. Well, we're not cheering this go-round. Everything is up in the air and all over the place. Arranging teachers has become a challenge that we are diligently engaging in but have no winter updates to report. We'll talk again in the flower show issue, which brings us back to where we started.

Contact me, Kathy, for info on garden rental events, Stone Wall Follies and pretty much anything garden related:

43 Year Mission!

It is our greatest desire to provide our customers with top quality, well-grown plant material at a fair and honest price. We will strive to provide an unmatched selection of old favorites and underused, hard-to-find items, along with the newest varieties on the market. We will eagerly share our horticultural knowledge gained from years of education and experience. Lastly, we offer all this in a spirit of fun and lightheartedness.

From the publisher

Dear reader,

Thank you for picking up this copy of Upstate Gardeners' Journal. This is an exciting year for us, as it is our 25th in publication! Looking back, I can hardly believe it, but it is through the constant support of our readers and advertisers that we've been able to do this for so long, and we are very, very grateful.

If you are a subscriber then you probably (hopefully!) received a copy of (585) magazine in the mail recently. I've been the editor-in-chief for more than four years now, and in November bought that chunk the business from its parent company. We thought it would be a good idea to send a sample copy to all of our subscribers, just in case you are interested in great Rochester-area lifestyle information. If you are, we sincerely hope you sign up for a subscription—we've already amped up the gardening coverage, and there is a lot more to come—plus food and drink, culture, music, profiles of interesting people, and anything else we can dream up. Visit us on the web at 585mag.com.

Thank you again—

Jane

PLANT FOOD

MAXSEA combines the best of nature and technology. We blend the finest natural seaweed with important secondaries, micronutrients and the purest plant foods available.

The resulting complexes are remarkably effective, easy-to-use concentrates that dissolve instantly and completely in water... for fast acting, immediate results. In solution, MAXSEA's natural brown granules turn dark seaweed green and have the fresh, clean aroma of the sea... a pleasure to use and completely safe for the environment.

Professional growers and home gardeners alike tell us our MAXSEA plant foods are the finest available anywhere. We're very proud of that.
